Who is Saint Louis University? Founded in 1818, Saint Louis University is one of the nation's oldest and most prestigious Catholic universities. SLU, which also has a campus in Madrid, Spain, is recognized for world-class academics, life-changing research, compassionate health care, and a strong commitment to faith and service.

All About You

The Criminology & Criminal Justice (CCJ) program at Saint Louis University invites applications for a non-tenure track position at the rank of Assistant Clinical Professor . The position begins August 2023. The successful applicant will assist the CCJ program in teaching and student mentorship. This position will involve teaching in-person classes offered on the St. Louis campus. The salary is competitive.

We are seeking applicants with broad teaching expertise who are enthusiastic about teaching courses widely across our CCJ curriculum. Applicants must have at least a master's degree in CCJ or closely related field. Applicants holding a PhD in CCJ or closely related field by August 2023 are encouraged to apply and may have both undergraduate and graduate-level teaching assignments. We especially welcome applications from scholars in underrepresented groups, including minority race and/or gender non-conforming people.

Applications should include the following: (1) a cover letter that describes the candidates' interest in undergraduate education along with specific areas of teaching expertise; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) sample syllabi; and (4) a list of three references with their contact information. The university requires all applicants to complete a statement on the page "Application Questions 1 of 2" about their understanding of Jesuit identity and values. Lastly, SLU Workday applications must be completed in one sitting; you will not be able to revise it once it is submitted.

All other correspondence should be addressed to Joseph Schafer, Ph.D., Non-Tenure Track Search Committee Chair, at joseph.schafer@slu.edu. Formal review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.
